

Entered at the Postoffice at Accomac C. H., Va., as second-class matter.

Gen. Mahone in securing the appointment recently of Wm. E. Graig, of Augusta county, Va., as U. S. Attorney for the Western District of Virginia, scores another point against the "kickers," too convincing for it to be any longer a matter of doubt, that he has the ear of the party in power at Washington and will distribute the Federal patronage in this State. Billy is surely Ross again in the Republican ranks in Virginia and "kickers" who want a share in the spoils will surely have to bend "the plant knee for the thrift that follows winning," or be "sail left out in the weather." Controlling the patronage, Mahone is the Republican party and all who are unwilling to be subject in all things unto him, need expect and will get no favors. No other alternative is left to them but to submit to his dictation or get out of the party. With the leaves and fishes at his command, the question, who is to be the Republican nominee for Governor is no longer a debatable one. Mahone will be of course if he wants to be, and if he is not, will name the man.

The infamous Bill Chandler, has recently been re-elected Senator from New Hampshire—Foraker the dirtiest of "bloody shirt wavers" was on Wednesday nominated for the third time for Governor of Ohio—and Billy Mahone the outcast, has been recognized at Washington as the proper person to distribute the Federal patronage in Virginia. The attention of our readers is called to the dirty trio, and we are willing to leave it with them to decide if they can expect anything from or see anything to admire in a party that honors men so notorious for their filth and corruption. Comment is unnecessary. The Southern man is indeed joined to his idols who does not turn with disgust from such a picture.

Sullivan and Kilrain have been warned by a public proclamation of the Governor of Louisiana, that the fistie encounter in which they will engage on 8th of July, cannot come off in that State, and the feats of prowess of the two champions will have to be exhibited elsewhere. It is to be hoped that the disgraceful contest will not be permitted in any of the Southern States.

Mahone's Republican Executive and Central Committees have been called to meet in Petersburg July 9th. A number of the most prominent Republicans of the State will be invited to meet Mahone and members of the two committees to discuss the situation. This conference, it is thought, will practically determine who will be the nominees of the Republicans for Governor and other officers to be nominated. If it agrees that Mahone shall be nominated, then the machinery of the organization will be doubtless put in motion to further that end.—Norfolk Ledger.

The department of law of the Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., was enlarged at the recent meeting of the board of trustees by the addition of a professorship of equity, commercial, constitutional and international law, and the Hon. J. Randolph Tucker was elected to the position. In accepting it Mr. Tucker announced his permanent retirement from politics and his intention to devote the remainder of his life to teaching.

Col. Sherwin McKee, formerly a prominent lawyer, an ex-member of the Legislature from Henric county, compiler of the State records, and of late years connected with the State library, died in Richmond Wednesday, aged 84 years. He was, it is said, a descendant of Pocahontas on his mother's side.

The Finance Committee of the City Council of Richmond have agreed to recommend to the next meeting of the Council, that the city make a loan of $40,000 to the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical Society to enable them to pay off their indebtedness. The city has already $30,000 of stock, and this will increase her holdings to $70,000.

Maj. M. P. Spessard, who twice represented Craig and Roanoke in the Legislature, died at his home near Abbott, Craig county, last week, after a long and painful illness. He was a major of the Twenty-eighth Virginia Infantry, which belonged to Pickett's division.

Mrs. Hayes, wife of ex President Rutherford B. Hayes, died last Tuesday morning at her home, in Fremont, Ohio, of paralysis, with which she was attacked on Friday last.

Hon. Wm. Walter Phelps, of New Jersey has been appointed minister to Germany.

Ex Senator Simon Cameron, of Pennsylvania, died last Wednesday.

Disreputable Appointments.

The Washington correspondent of the Alexandria Gazette says: It is charged by a number of Virginia Republicans here, amongst whom is ex Senator Canby, of Sussex county, an anti-Mahoneite, that the Postoffice Department has lately committed a singular blunder, not to say a serious offense against the citizens of Greensville county, in their State, by appointing a postmaster at Emporium, the county seat of the county, whose moral character is simply so bad as to make it doubtful whether ladies or even refined and genteel persons of the mass line sex will consent to hold friendly relations with the new appointee. The party appointed takes the place of a Democratic official who had made a most excellent officer. Prof. Langston and ex-Congressman Brady are said to have been the agent, in procuring the appointment in question. It is also charged that the negro postmaster who has just been selected for Boykinton, the county seat of Mecklenburg, has a record scarcely less obnoxious. He is accused of breaking open a letter and stealing therefrom the sum of one dollar, to say nothing of other serious objections to his handling the mails of so important a point as Boykinton, and that he lives seven miles from the postoffice site. Judge Alexander, a most reputable citizen, highly endorsed and greatly desired by the patrons of the office, was turned down, they say, by the negro referred to. Both these appointments are due, it is asserted, to the representations of Langston and Brady. How many more such impositions will it require to make the people of Virginia think that they are again going back to the carpet bag rule of years gone by?

The Lord Botetourt Coffin Plate.
RICHMOND, VA., June 24.—The silver coffin plate from the deceased grave of Lord Botetourt at Williamsburg, was received by Mr. Charles Poundexter, State Librarian, to day. It came by express from Rome, N. Y., where it was purchased as old silver by Mr. E. P. Bevilard, a French jeweler, for $250. The plate is slightly defaced by marks of some instrument, used probably when it was taken from the coffin, which graceless act is supposed to have been done during the occupancy of Williamsburg by the Federal troops in 1862. Mr. Bevilard sent with the plate a letter, in which he said: "An offer was made me by citizens of Rome to buy the plate and they present it to you, but I declined, as I would rather take the honor to present it myself to the State of Virginia." The relic returned has been placed in the library in the box of curiosities. It will be forwarded to William and Mary College at Williamsburg, where the remains of Lord Botetourt are buried.

The State Convention.
ROOMS OF THE STATE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.
ALEXANDRIA, VA., June 28 1889.
In pursuance of a resolution of the State Democratic Committee passed at their meeting in Richmond, June 19th instant, a call is hereby issued for a convention of the Democratic party of Virginia, at the city of Richmond, on Wednesday, August 14, 1889, at 12 o'clock noon.
The ratio of representation will be one delegate and one alternate for each 100 Democratic votes and fractions of more than fifty cast at the last presidential election.
The several county and city committees are requested to provide for the selection of the delegates, &c., according to the usual party methods.
JOHN S. BARBOUR, Chairman.
W. W. SCOTT, Secretary.

Mahone to Get the Patronage.
The Washington special in the Alexandria Gazette of Saturday says: "The appointment of Mr. Craig as United States Attorney for the Western District of Virginia is looked upon by all the Virginia Republicans here as proof positive of the President's determination to give all the Federal offices in their State to the men recommended by General Mahone. Even the 'kickers' take this view of the matter, and are depressed accordingly. One of the latter, in talking about it today, said the appointment of State as Postmaster at Norfolk was the positive degree of Mahoneism; that of Farr as Marshal of the Eastern District of the State the comparative, and that of Craig as Attorney for the Western District the superlative."

Montgomery county Tuesday elected thirteen delegates to the State convention, all of whom are for Major J. H. Tyler, of Pulaski county, for Governor.
HARRISONBURG, VA., June 25.—The result of the local-option election in this district yesterday shows 49 majority for license. The contest was very exciting and a large vote was polled. Two years ago the district voted dry by a majority of 291. Licensed saloons will be opened here in a short time.

RICHMOND, VA., June 24.—In the Chancery Court to day, Watkins, Campbell & Co. for themselves and other creditors of the Richmond and Alleghany Railroad Company, entered suit against Hon. James G. Blaine and other stockholders of the Richmond and Alleghany Railroad Company. The object of this suit is to recover to the defendants, who are or were stockholders of the Richmond and Alleghany Railroad Company, their pro-rata shares of $4,940,000, the difference between $5,000,000 stock subscribed and $60,000 actually paid in, as shown by the sworn statement of Secretary E. R. Leland.
